MACEIO LANGUAGE INSTITUTE - MACEIO, BRAZIL

ABOUT THE SCHOOL AND THE CITY:

Since 1991, Maceio Language Institute Language Institute has been devoted to providing high quality, personalized language instruction, specializing in Portuguese for non-Brazilians, English and Spanish for Brazilians and students from other exchange countries. Maceio Language Institute is committed to excellence and is proud to be the only member of IALC (International Association of Language Centers) in South America.

The institute in Maceio resides in two adjoining buildings with a house-like structure, the quaint environment enhancing the intimate atmosphere provided to students. There are 10 classrooms, 2 equipped with computer, TV, VCR, and audio. The facilities also include a fully equipped kitchen for Brazilian cooking classes. The two buildings are separated by a lush garden where students, faculty and staff relax and enjoy Maceio's tropical climate.

Maceio is the capital of the state of Alagoas, in northeastern Brazil, with a population of approximately 325,000 people. It is situated below low bluffs between the Atlantic Ocean and the Norte (or Mundaú) Lagoon. Formerly called Macayo, the city dates from 1815, when a small settlement there was made a villa. In 1839 it became capital of Alagoas and was given city status. Though much of the colonial buildings are gone, giving way to modern architecture, there still remains the Government Palace, the Metropolitan Cathedral, and Bom Jesus dos Mártires church.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The schools offer both group and private instruction, from absolute beginners to advanced levels. Courses are focused on conversation, though there may be some writing requirements to be completed at home. The textbook is excellent, developed at the University of Sao Paulo.
